Read the following quotes from the first few pages of Act 1. Then answer the questions that follow.

- 1. "The Englishmen who landed there were motivated mainly by a hunt for profit."
 - What reasons brought colonists to the new world?
- 2. "It was however, an autocracy by consent, for they were uniting from top to bottom by a commonly held ideology whose perpetuation was the reason and justification for all their sufferings."
 - What is an autocracy?
 - If people give their consent to the government, what does this mean?
 - What are some enlightenment ideas about government?
- 3. "But the people of Salem in 1692 were not quite the dedicated folk that arrived on the Mayflower"
 - Who arrived on the mayflower?
 - Compare the people of Salem with the people of Plymouth.
- 4. "The witch hunt was not, however, a mere repression"
 - What does it mean to repress people?

Write a short paragraph explaining how the Puritans handled people who did not comply with their way of life. Add specific details (examples) and analysis.
