The Catcher in the Rye – Ch. 24 (180-193)

1. How is Holden physically feeling in this chapter?

Dizzy, feels sick, exhausted, hung over, empty stomach
PHYSICAL SYMPTOMS OF EMOTIONAL PROBLEMS

2. What does Mr. Antolini say Holden is heading toward? (Hint: "I have a feeling that you're riding for some kind of a terrible, terrible FALL.")

- Mr. A is trying to help Holden, just like Holden wants to help others from ending up like him
- Mr. A still thinks Holden can be saved

3. What advice does Mr. Antolini give Holden?

Think about the future! Think about what you want to do in life, and then go and do it! Stick to your plans!

"You can't afford to lose a minute. Not you" (188).

"...once you have a fair idea of where you want to go, your first move will be to apply yourself in school" (188-189).

"The mark of the immature man is that he wants to die nobly for a cause, while the mark of the mature man is that he wants to live humbly for one" (188). → Don't want to die to prove a point, LIVE to have an impact

4. How do we know that Mr. Antolini and Holden are very close and that Mr. Antolini cares about Holden?

He was watching him sleep

He welcomed Holden into his home in the middle of the night

Always at each other's homes, play tennis together

Mr. A in close contact with H's parents

Mr. A knows who Sally and Jane are

Mr. A really cares for H and wants to help him

5. Why does Holden run out of Mr. Antolini's house?

He's scared of affection

As soon as help is so close, he runs away from it AGAIN → FEAR
